

Until we hear that final “well done”.

Matthew 25:21 His lord said unto him, Well done, [thou] good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things. I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

It has been said often that one of life's greatest satisfactions is seeing a job finished. This is certainly true for anyone who has found the joy of doing work that has true eternal value.

2017 flew by with our teams working in at least 10 states, and several others visited by Ray McCullough and Karl Badalian, to give council on building projects for the future.

There is an onslaught of information out there about churches declining and even closing, but we are truly blessed to be able to partner with churches such as yours in advancing the cause of Christ.

Looking back at the original thought of this letter we all realize there is much work left to be done and we approach each project trusting that the Lord has another one to follow.

New Testament Church Planting has gone through a leadership change, personnel changes, as well as changing times, and yet the work goes on. As some of our team members get older and some become limited in what they can do, we ask you to join with us in praying that the Lord would send more workers our way.

We do have some families who are helping on projects and waiting on their retirement day, so they can start working a job that has no end in this life.

Thank You for your faithful support and prayers.

May we all continue faithfully until we hear “well done”.
