

Transitions, Trials, and Triumphs October 1, 2021

1 Samuel 30:6 And David was greatly distressed; for the people spake of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, every man for his sons and for his daughters: but David encouraged himself in the LORD his God.

When life is spent ministering in various places throughout the country, it makes meeting many different people necessary. This allows interactions that can and will build relationships lasting a lifetime. Of course some of life's interactions are not productive but those trials cause us to truly appreciate the triumphs of life.

I am one who has tried to remain positive about people as well as circumstances in life. This does not mean that we do not make an honest assessment of Who we work for and with as a ministry.

New Testament Church Planting, with all of its workers, has a true desire to be an encouragement as well as a physical blessing wherever the Lord takes us. Most often the churches we help are short on money and time, as far as their buildings are concerned.

We have projects being worked on in Florida as well as Missouri at this time but must finish up two projects in Wyoming and Iowa before the cold winds of winter begin to blow.

There is still a great opportunity in Mason City, Iowa. We have a building that is great shape and waiting for a church planter to heed the call of God to that area.

Many meetings, like our Focus on America Conference, that are designed to help church planters, have been cancelled for two years so continue to pray and give so the work continues here in America as well as the whole world.

Thank you for all you do, we are truly encouraged.
